Stormbreak – word relay – a chance to get the brains working	Children took part in the activity well and found that the phrase was ‘This is Me’ which links into the theme of todays meetings Adapted to ensure all could take part.	N/A
Plans for children (One plans, EHCP’s, medical, any plans for young people) – How could young people have a voice in these plans? Many young people in this room may have a plan to help teachers support them. You may have medical appointments; you may have an EHCP. How could you tell adults what you need? What helps you?	Really good discussion and some amazing key phrases which will be on the longer video but included: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Things need to be equitable people should have what they need to help them. 2. It should be normal to have things like ear defenders. 3. I use german film and braille. 4. I need my glasses 5. I use a hearing loop 	N/A
BREAK – Refreshments provided by host school.
Banjo Tag line – What could it be? Banjo has a hidden need / disability. If someone met Banjo they would not know. Can you think of things he could say to help people understand about his need?	See attached PDF	N/A
Session led by young person	Young person at session with visual impairment. Showed all the other children the German film which she uses when she does not have her braille machine with her. Wrote the name of another young person from the other school.

Social media takeover day

We are giving Voices of Hertfordshire the chance to be in charge of Hertfordshire county council, Voices of Hertfordshire, Services for young people and Health social media channels for the day on the 3rd December 2024 as part of World Disability Day. This is your chance to air your views on what is good and what could be better with regards to special education needs support in Hertfordshire.

All schools:

Take back to school task for November meetings. How will the young people provide social media content for #SENDtakeover2024
